Sir:

This Interview Summary is filed in relation to the Examiner Interview conducted on May 9, 2006.

The patent owner's representatives wish to thank Examiner Coffy for his time during the Examiner's interview, during which the status of the application was discussed, specifically whether the Notice of Appeal was properly filed. The Applicants asserted the Appeal was properly filed since the claims have been at least twice rejected, despite the finality of the Office Action dated August 12, 2005 being withdrawn in the Office Action dated February 6, 2006. The telephonic interview concluded with all parties in agreement that the claims stand at least twice rejected and the Appeal being properly filed. As such, it was agreed there were no outstanding issues for the Applicants to respond to at this time and the Appeal Brief would be considered in due course. The patent owner's representatives appreciated the opportunity to discuss the status of the application with the Examiner.

Respectfully submitted,

BANNER & WITCOFF, LTD.
